Return and exchange policy

There is no warranty on China items. However, we check the items before shipping it to customers.

We check all the items whether it is Chinese or Pakistani before shipping it to our honorable customers. Pakistani items have a guaranty. If customers don't like the product or find some fault in the locally made product, they can return it to us. Simply they have to download the return form from our website page.

Fill it and insert it into the flyer. We will change the product or we can return the amount to a customer on their demand.

We offer 15 days Return policy.
